Elden Ring Features Key:

Character Classes Each character has its own set of weapons and armor and can make the best use of them in combat. Each character has its own set of unique abilities.

Unique Confrontation System A unique conflict system allows you to engage in one-on-one fights with monsters. It introduces a fear factor to battle, where a character may choose to back down rather than fight. There are also effects such as party members going berserk, and in some cases, fighting as an individual.

Voice Acting The protagonist and the majority of the secondary characters all have original voiced voices. If this is your first foray into fantasy anime soundtracks, you're already better equipped to follow along with the story due to its opening theme and OST.

Grotesque Monsters Each monster has been designed with a precise sense of balance to ensure refined gameplay. They are some of the most dangerous adversaries you'll face.

Selectable Camera Angles We implemented the ability to view the player character from different angles to enable you to view the battlefield from different perspectives, depending on what situation you're in.

Multiple Dungeons A variety of dungeons each with its own unique appearance and quests, all filled with monsters.

Shocking Opponent Special Attacks The monsters who have grasped the power of the Elden Ring seek to inflict the wrath of their magic on their opponents. These attacks are all one-of-a-kind — when their attack expires, they follow through with a special attack.

Random Battles Bring some chaos into the battlefield with the new "party" system, which allows you to form temporary parties to fight alongside you in a battle. The battle system allows you to control a team and form a strategy that works to your advantage.

Greetings, hello! Hello! This is one of the most awaited RPG games for smartphone. Also known as Tarnished, this is an action RPG game where the roles of the player are divided between two characters. We are Tarnished, who is the Player, and Marni, who is the NPC, and they will be the protagonists of this game. In the game, we can play with different characters each, such as Tarnished, Marni, Vex, Deckard, Ysabel and Blackjack. We can choose the characters we want to play with, and we can both play the story and battle. There are two battles; one is the battle against other players and the other is the battle against enemies. Battles are made possible with various weapons and skills, and whenever the enemies get into conflict, the situation becomes more and more critical. Tarnished, who is a kid, then gets transported to an Elden Ring and gets on his journey in the Lands Between. Also, we can choose our equipment by paying attention to the content, the equipment of the player characters. [Story] Let's start with the story! Marni says that the journey of Tarnished, which began at a small store called the eponymous shop, turns into an adventure with monsters and darkness. We get to know the life of Tarnished, who has been transported to the Elden Ring, and while moving from one city to another, we get to know the story of his journey. The story of Tarnished seems to be a story where the order of the pieces of the puzzle has been reversed and the story is written in an unexpected direction. Each of the characters could have a story that could be described as a strange one. Also, the story of the Elves is fascinating, and we can get into the world of the game through the characters, which makes it all the more better to read. Other than that, we can get into the story with the keywords of the game, and we can check the game tutorial using the keywords and then find out the other keywords in the adventure. Along the journey in the Lands Between, Tarnished will be trying to discover the hidden area, but at the same time, the structure is difficult to discover. Therefore, the game tutorial in the order of the keywords to find the keywords necessary to play the game is a useful function. [Characters] Tarnished Player's bff6bb2d33

Special Abilities He is able to breathe flames out of his mouth at will. Behavior Because of his appearance, he is often mistaken for a dragon. In the anime In the anime, he is shown to be a subordinate to Harry and is later sent on a mission to capture a dragon and take it back to the main army.[2] Trivia Behind the Scenes Gryphovis is a rather interesting dragon to create. He has no facial features, no real sense of form, and no real sense of form. In fact, his body has no curves, it's just straight. In order to do any sort of hair and skin casting, we had to go back to referencing our previous work on Storhed (the dragon). Like Storhed, we kept the head and back of the dragon almost completely flat. The belly, however, was modeled much more realistically. The face is mostly just the eyes, mouth, and nostrils. His body is the same way; for the dragon's body. We didn't want to simply copy it, so we were careful to keep some designs unique
