About 20 people went to Council chambers on Wednesday, July 18. Concerned public turned out to discuss proposed hate speech bylaws. The meeting has now been adjourned until Monday, July 23, where a representative from Calgary police will be in attendance. Public meetings are supposed to be open and transparent. This is what the Council said when the meeting was adjourned: "Section 4 of the Calgary Charter stipulates that our meetings are public and that it is open to the public and the media. As this meeting is anticipated to become an extended forum, the Council has determined that it is not in the best interest of the citizens of the City to continue the meeting in this format." Council has provided a link to the agenda for the meeting. Shoulder disability in patients with rheumatic disease: is it predictive of subacromial impingement? This study was undertaken to evaluate the predictive validity of shoulder disability on exercise and static tests for the presence of subacromial pain in patients with rheumatic disease. Cross-sectional comparison of patients with rheumatic disease with and without subacromial impingement symptoms. Controlled laboratory setting. Sixty-two patients with rhe
